SOURCE  

- 25X1 1.   source states that the Hungarian government has summoned politically unreliable persons to report for military duty on 6 September 1951. Police and gendarmerie officials were instructed to grant no deferments, but to enforce the enrollment of all the men called for that date.
- 25X1 2.   source asserts that nothing is known of any call-up for 6 September, but that the class of 1931 will be called for the Hungarian army on 6 October 1951. An acquaintance of source has been notified that he will be called. *
- 25X1 *   Comment: Hitherto the compulsory draft has applied only to men 21 years old and older, while 20-year-old men have been accepted as volunteers.
